ATTENTION LADIES

We had a BUSY April. Before it started we had our Quilt Raffle. MANY THANKS to Ruth Schnyder for taking charge of this and also for supervising the Fish Fries. Job well done. The Quilts of Valor was well attended. 92 quilters and 3 Vietnam Vets were given quilts. THANKS for all the salads and desserts. The bowls were empty. Alice and her loyal workers did a FINE job.

Thanks to Wilma Sitzer and Jerry and Mary Ann Davis for helping with the darts for the Special Needs kids.

We were saddened this month by the loss of one of our founding members, Eileen "Wink" Maher. We had a very good turnout for our Vigil Service. Plus, thanks to Shirley Saali, Debbie Moynihan and Cathy Neihaus who were responsible for setting up and clean up for the luncheon for the family and friends. Also to their husbands who did the heavy work. Plus, ALL of you for bringing in such WONDERFUL dishes for the luncheon. Wink was a VERY special member and we all will miss her.

Fashion Show donations were collected at the meeting and tables were sold. If you want a ticket or table or can work that evening call Rosemary at 636-240-8262. The remodeling of the building has begun and future meetings will be held at Assumption starting at 7 pm in Hall B. If possible, we will try to get hall C as the tables and chairs are comfortable. An extra meeting will be held at 7 pm on May 17 to wrap up plans for the Fashion Show on June 6.

WELCOME to new members Donna Johnson and Loretta Ramshaw!
50/50 won by Yvette Weiman and Rita Thornhill won the attendance prize.
